What's On Guide
July to September 2021

Welcome to our latest newsletter where you can find lots of information about the sessions and activities running within your local community over the next few months. Look out for our summer programme of activities running in all of our centres during the Summer Holidays.

We would like to welcome all families who have registered with us this year. We feel it is important to be able to continue to provide families with support during this challenging time. Our teams are continuing to deliver support in a variety of ways and we are now offering many sessions face-to-face in most of our Children's Centres. Covid-secure procedures are in place at each centre.

We are still available to contact if you feel in need of support or would like further advice or information; you can get in touch by contacting one of our centres, below:-

Recovery Toolkit

The Recovery Toolkit is a 12-week programme for women who have experienced domestic abuse. It is a closed group programme and therefore participants are expected to attend sessions every week. The programme is based on a psychoeducational model which aims to provide women who have experienced domestic abuse with the resources to maximise their own potential. Women who attend the group have to have left their abusive relationship.

This course is run regularly, please contact us for more information.

Please contact Johanna Smith by email on johanna.smith@family-action.org.uk or by telephone on 0781568846 for more information and when the next programme will begin.

Decider Skills

The Decider Skills is Cognitive Behavioural Therapy to teach children, young people and adults the skills to recognise their own thoughts, feelings and behaviours, enabling them to monitor and manage their own emotions and mental health.

There are 12 skills they will be taught to help manage feelings and emotions with a workbook to make their own as a supportive tool.

Solihull Parenting Course

The Solihull parenting group is for parents/carers who want to know more about sensitive and effective parenting. It aims to develop a framework of thinking about child/parenting relationships to:

- Promote understanding of children's behavior within the context of developmental issues
- Promote the development of parent/child reciprocity (being in tune with your child's needs)
- Increase confidence and self-esteem in both parents/child relationships
- Give parents a strategy for repair when things go wrong
- Develop a framework of thinking about parent/child relationships which can develop into a lifelong skill
- Promote reflective, sensitive and effective parenting

Please contact Karen Routledge-Rudd by email on karen.routledge-rudd@family-action.org.uk or by telephoning one of the centre's for more information and when the next programme will begin.

UNDERSTANDING YOUR CHILD

S O L I H U L L A P P R O A C H

Family Action Needs YOU!!
Could you be a volunteer with us?

Volunteering has been at the heart of Family Action since we were established in 1869, run solely by volunteers.

As a volunteer you will gain valuable skills and experience working as part of a team making a real difference to the lives of children and young people in your area. With access to a comprehensive learning package, we can help you achieve this with continued support and training.

Looking to gain experience whilst studying or to gain full-time employment? We have lots of flexible options with both short and long-term positions available.

There are lots of ways you can give your time; please contact me to find out more information!!
