YEAR 7 - History – Power and Control of the Monarchy

TOPIC OVERVIEW:

- You will learn about the power and control of the monarchy over a set period. (1066-1649) They begin with the rule of William I and his use of the Feudal System, then move to the reign of John I and analyse the significance of Magna Carta. Next, the reign of Henry VIII and his use of the Act of Supremacy, finally concluding with the execution of Charles I and establishment of purposeful government.

- Your previous studies at KS2 in primary school on Anglo-Saxon laws and justice and Edward the Confessor and his death in 1066 will support your learning in this topic as it will give you the foundation knowledge to study how the power and control of the monarchy changed over time.

- This study will also come in useful when you study Year 9 – Medicine Through Time. (context of the Middle Ages before the study of Medicine) Year 11 – Anglo-Saxon and Norman England period study. (Introducing students to key names and terms) From a second order concept focus, Medicine Through Time breadth study
